

A PRACTICAL, PERSONAL SOLUTION FOR YOU

“What could happen if you had an experienced veteran to coach you through the issues and details of your small group ministry?”

- Helping you identify and implement your vision and strategy
- Working personally with you, your leadership, and your people.
- The benefits of a seasoned practitioner at a fraction of the cost of a staff position.
- Support for busy pastors, encouragement for stretched lay people

WHY JACK DYSON?

Jack's commitment to small group ministry, as well as his knowledge of group dynamics, was invaluable in helping our congregation establish its own small group ministry. Furthermore, Jack's faith, humor and experience were constantly on display as he worked with our growth group leaders.

I felt like I needed to write and say thank you. You were there for me and helped me figure out what it meant to be a small groups pastor. You helped me see that we don't have to have this whole thing figured out to be successful, and you helped me see that I never had to be alone in my team struggles, loneliness and that isolation was a choice I was making
